Dear _____:

Federal law requires any individual applying for admission to a nursing facility be screened to identify suspected mental illness and/or mental retardation and if so, make a determination for the need of active treatment.

The determination has been made that the individual listed above does not require active treatment and can be admitted to the nursing facility of their choice.

This decision applies to the requirement for determination of whether or not active treatment is required. It does not override other Rules and Regulations pertaining to nursing home admission.

If you have further questions you may call us toll-free within the State of Tennessee at 1-800-523-2863.

Sincerely,

Eleanor F. Brantley RN
